

Woven Journeys

6-10 December 2016

Programme Objectives:

To familiarize students with the traditional art forms of Kutch in Gujarat specially focused on textile art and designs

To gain basic understanding of the various techniques used for making designs on fabrics.

To introduce students to the ecosystem and biodiversity of Kutch

Programme Outcomes:

A sense of appreciation of traditional art and craft

Basic fabric art and design skills developed through hands-on learning

Deeper understanding of biodiversity and the role it plays in the region.

Programme Schedule (Draft)

	Day 1 6 th Dec	Day 2 7 th Dec	Day 3 8 th Dec	Day 4 9 th Dec	Day 5 10 th Dec
Morning	Arrival & Check in	Hands-on Workshop with Khamir Craft Resource Centre (Day long)	Hands-on Workshop with Somaiya Kala Vidya (Day long)	Visit to Banni Grassland – Local Ecosystem and Biodiversity	Visit Living and Learning Design Center
	Introduction & Orientation to Programme
	Hands-on Workshop with Khamir Craft Resource Centre (Day long)				Close and Concluding Session
Afternoon					Departure for Mumbai
Evening

Programme Logistics: Accommodation

Dormitory at Navchetana - Kutch Jyoti Trust.

Photos of the dorm are representative

Programme Logistics: Local Travel

Local toofan jeep

3 toofan jeeps will be with us from the time of pick up at airport to drop to the airport

Non AC jeeps

Programme Logistics: Food

Local vegetarian meals and snacks will be provided throughout the 5 days of the programme

Mineral water will be provided throughout the programme

